

Thoughts on the Policy of the Crown Towards India

By John Malcolm Ludlow

Gyan Books Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India, 1986. Softcover. Book Condition: New. The year 1857 was a turning point in the History of British India. In this year the Sepoy Mutiny broke out, which, though suppressed by force by the then Government of the East India Company, riveted the attention of all educated Englishmen on India. Statesmen, Parliamentarians and people concerned with the welfare of the British nation went deep into the causes of the Mutiny and analysed its immediate and far-reaching impacts on the Military Strength and Financial resources of England. The causes of the disaster were not far to seek. The General maladministration of the Company, their annexation policy, interference with the age-old practice of succession by Adoption among the Indian princes, fear of the Indian people both the Hindus and the Musalmans - that the Government, with the Help of the Christian missionaries, are trying to convert the whole nation into Christianity, Discrimination of the natives from the Englishmen in Civil and military services as well as in the administration of justice, etc. became known as the causes behind the Mutiny. The future of the Indian Empire appeared to be grim to all right thinking persons in...
