Excerpt: . . . the steam pipes, and do such other work as shall put the plant in proper and economical working condition; when so placed a test of four days is to be made of the working capacity of the plant under the supervision of experts, to be furnished by Bass F. and M. Works or E. P. Allis and Co. , or their representatives, to ascertain the amount of consumption of coal and oil, and the quantity of labor required to operate said machinery, and to ascertain the net saving, if any, per day or month, in the running of said plant over the contract price, for the operation of the same with high speed engines, as heretofore contracted for; when, if any, the amount is thus ascertained, for the balance of said sum of thirty-nine thousand dollars, after deducting the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, viz. , twenty-four thousand dollars, said Louisiana E. L. and P. Co. is to execute its notes, payable monthly, from the date of said test, in equal amounts, for the amounts so saved, as shown by said test, up to said balance of twenty-four thousand dollars, the basis of said test to be the expense of running with 1000 lights; said last-named notes to be in such amounts and such number as to aggregate said sum of twenty-four thousand dollars. Said Louisiana E. L. and P. Co. is to furnish all coal and labor necessary to make above test, which...
