By Simone Aliya

lulu.com. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 100 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. This collection of narrative poems illuminates the life-affirming power of storytelling. Portraying the rough texture of a fictional Vermont community, the author first weaves a tapestry of quirky characters all desperate for human connection. She bases many of these characters on individuals in the town where she went to college in Vermont. Her work at a coffee shop in this town inspired the human landscape she sketches at the end of the book. In a caf in Vermont, such calloused characters as the ones from the beginning unite. Between the Vermont poems, the author illustrates her experience growing up as a third-generation Holocaust survivor. Crystallizing pain into writing, she emerges from the silence and trauma inherited from her father and grandmother. In another poem, she shares her story of losing a romantic relationship. These two middle pieces reveal language as a means not only of connection, but also of navigating emotions that range from desperation and obsession to faith and love. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
