It is a short article going to prove that water does not transmit malaria. He gives a chart showing that the introduction of a new watersupply into a certain city did not diminish the number of cases of malaria. He says, popular ideas on this matter are fallacious, and notes that persons may live in a malarious place and drink pure water and yet have malaria, while others in the same place drinking foul or paludal water do not have malaria. He himself gave water from the Pontine Marshes, which are acknowledged to be very malarious, in large quantities to a certain number of patients who never had malaria, without its giving birth to this disease in...
