Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from General McClellan s Peninsula Campaign The Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives on the conduct of the war have made an elaborate report, apart of which is calculated, probably intended, to impair public confidence in the military capacity of General McClellan. A report from a committee derived from so high a source as the Legislative Department of the government will, as it ought, command public attention, and influence to some extent the mind of the country. The publication of that report preceded, by some days, and even weeks, the publication of the evidence upon which it professes to be founded. The report has been published in many newspapers, and is industriously circulated in a pamphlet form. The opponents of General McClellan ought to be satisfied with the influence to his discredit which this document was diffusing, especially as he has not interposed one word to counteract that influence, and check its progress. The general has observed his characteristic silence; yet his persecutors are not content with the amount of influence already enlisted against him, but are constant and persevering in their efforts to destroy him. The New York Times, published yesterday, Friday, has a long and bitter article, in which, strangely enough, it resorts to rebel testimony taken from the Richmond Whig, to depreciate the military character of Gen. McClellan. Would the Times be willing to admit testimony in favor of his high military character from the same source? Such testimony the Times well knows is at hand, but I will not use it. Now I have read the testimony annexed to the report of the War Committee with some care, and...
