Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 314 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.8in. If you are interested in: Bible study, ancient literature, or philosophy; poetry, proverbs, quotes, riddles; or practical solutions to everyday problems in your life, or world; then this commentary on the Book of Proverbs may be for you. The Book of Proverbs may be even more interesting than you thought. More than just a random collection of some of the worlds best proverbs-in this commentary I am suggesting answers to the three thousand year old riddle of its literary structure, and progressive theme-opening a larger window on the economic, social, religious, and political philosophy taught by its author, King Solomon-called by many the wisest man who ever lived. This commentary on the Book of Proverbs was written by a layman, for laymen, Bible students, and the average interested reader. It contains the complete text of Proverbs, from the NASB (New American Standard Bible). It also contains over 40 pages of helpful appendixes including: Suggestions on how to read and study the Bible, and a large, Topical guide to the Book of Proverbs. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
