The exhibitors will not have to pay the expenses of a boarded floor, or of a closed ceiling, or contribute to the laying out of the adjoining gardens. Exhibitors of objects of fine art, and of those for the Exposition des Amateurs have no charge whatever to pay for space. 9. The chief manager will enter into communication with the railway and steamboat companies of Austria and Hungary, in order to procure reductions of rates for the conveyance of objects for the exhibition. The foreign commissions are also invited to enter into communication with the railway and steamboat companies of their countries for the same purpose, and to communicate by the 1st of May, 1872, to the chief manager, the reductions which they have obtained. The chief manager will then publish all the dates concerning these reductions by the 1st of July, 1872. 10. The exhibition grounds will be considered as a bonded warehouse, and objects which are monopolies in Austria may also be exhibited without any hinderance. 11. Objects exhibited can only be removed before the closing of the exhibition by special permission of the chief manager. 12. Immediately after the close of the exhibition, the exhibitors must attend to the packing and removal of their goods and fittings. These operations must be finished by the 31st of December, 1873. The goods, packages, and erections which may not have been removed by the exhibitors or their representatives after this term has expired, will be deposited, if they are of sufficient value, in warehouses, at the cost and risk of the exhibitors. The objects which may...
