

The Shadow Empire: Genesis (Paperback)

By Antonio Cesar Vega

Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 274 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life.What is life? Many have risked their own seeking the answer to this simple, yet complex question, traveling the far corners of this world to satisfy such curiosity, often sacrificing it in the pursuit. Most never wonder, not once challenging or questioning the obvious . . . why are we here? The path to enlightenment is a treacherous one, paved with the souls of those who have tried and failed. In a world, not so far away, five ancient races collide in a story that started in the time before recorded history and took root with the rise of Babylon. Five ancient races lay the foundation for all advanced life forms on planet Earth. They began as a race united within a great city of the ancient world known as Babylon. When the city fell for reasons that can only be explained as divine, the one race of Babylonians was split into five separate groups which migrated from the city to populate the Earth. This cataclysmic event and the splitting of their language led to the downfall...
